ANALYSIS OF STAKEHOLDER FEEDBACK REPORT AND ACTION TAKEN REPORT

On analyzing the feedback reports from Students, Parents, Teachers and Alumni, the following points were established -

In the analysis of Student's Feedback report about 1.54 percent of the students pointed out the inadequacy of opportunities for students to participate in field visits.

Explanation: Due to COVID 19 pandemic situation there was hardly any opportunities to organize and participate in field visits. But the institute is keen to organize such curriculum based field visits in the coming sessions.

Again in the Student's Feedback report 1.54 percent of students also pointed the inadequacy of out of classroom learning like seminars, workshops, value added programs etc.

Explanation: As offline classes were closed due to COVID-19 situation there was hardly any scope to arrange seminars, workshops, value added programs in offline mode; although the institution arranged different seminars, workshops in this period in online mode. The institution also proposes to arrange for such in-person seminars, workshops and value added programme in the near future strictly maintaining COVID norms and protocols.

In the parent's feedback report 3.45 percent of the responses pointed inadequacy of parent teacher contact on regular basis.

Explanation: Institution on regular basis arrange teacher- parents meeting regarding their attendance and performances but due to COVID situation there was hardly any scope to arrange such meeting; although institution is very positive to arrange such meetings on regular basis in near future.

In the parent's feedback report 3.45 percent of the responses pointed inadequacy of library facilities.

Explanation: Our institution has adequate amount of resources in the library but due to COVID situation students could not access the facilities physically. During the pre-pandemic period and also after the college has resumed in offline mode from November 2021, students accessed adequately the library facilities.
